Dear Unit C Parents:

As you hopefully know from reading the school newsletters, your child/ren will be presenting "Goin' Buggy!" on Thursday, April 17, at 7:00 p.m. in Dutcher Gym. Please have your child in the Parish Commons at 6:50 on that night. All students are required to participate, but if for some reason your child will be unable to attend, please send a written message to the school so that we can make sure all parts are covered.

COSTUMES: This musical allows our country's largest constituency - the insect population - to air its grievances, point with pride at its accomplishments, and demand its rights. All of the students (except 8) will be dressing as bugs this year. If your child was selected to represent a specific bug/part, then their name is listed below. However, if your child's name is not listed below, they can choose to dress like any bug that they want.

Costumes do not need to be elaborate, and please use items that are easily accessible. Many times Goodwill, attics, grandparents, neighbors, relatives, or other parents have wonderful ideas about how to create a simple costume. If you are unable to come up with any ideas for your child, or if you have questions, please contact me.

Specific bug costumes:

- | | |
|---|------------------------------|
| Cricket - Leah Visokey | Grasshopper - Thanya Guevara |
| Spiders - Katie Meier, Bennett Schons | Ant - Ellen Wallingford |
| Beetle - Jordan Thompson | Dragonfly - Sammone Jones |
| Ladybug (red) with a feather boa - Lara Hetheron | |
| Fireflies - Jacob Pence, Tylor Dohlman, Drew Stensland, Bret Bouska, John Haque, Jacob Johnson | |
| Caterpillars that can easily turn into butterflies - Martha Easton, Courtney Durbala, Melissa Kremer, Ashlyn Walgren (my suggestion would be to wear a cape and decorate the inside with colorful material so that when they spread their wings, they will look like a butterfly) | |
| Honeybees - Grace Skarlis, Jaedah Mabry, Aimee Klein, Hannah McDermott, Rachel Hulme, Emily Benda | |

Costumes other than bugs:

- Miss Muffet - Kathryn Wright
 Flowers - Paige Buege, Samantha Palmersheim, Sylvia Amlie, Lizzie Delagardelle
 Congressman - Walter Seymour, Alec Staudt, Cody Lee

Again, I appreciate your continued support and help in getting your child ready for the program. If you have any questions, feel free to give me a call, and hopefully I can offer some suggestions. See you on April 17!

Miss Meyers
